THE MILES VORKOSIGAN ADVENTURES

Gentleman Jole and the Red Queen

A Vorkosigan Novel

The Miles Vorkosigan Adventures, Book #17

By Lois McMaster Bujold

Read by Grover Gardner

Three years after her famous husband's death, Cordelia Vorkosigan, widowed Vicereine of Sergyar, stands ready to spin her life in a new direction. Oliver Jole, admiral, Sergyar Fleet, finds himself caught up in her web of plans in ways he'd never imagined, bringing him to an unexpected crossroads in his life. Meanwhile, Miles Vorkosigan, one of Emperor Gregor's key investigators, this time dispatches himself on a mission of inquiry, into a mystery he never anticipated—his own mother. Plans, wills, and expectations collide in this sparkling science fiction social comedy, as the impact of galactic technology on the range of the possible changes all the old rules.

- New York Times bestselling author
- Lois McMaster Bujold is one of the most highly regarded speculative fiction writers of all time, having won three Nebula Awards and six Hugo Awards

Playing to the Edge

American Intelligence in the Age of Terror
by Michael V. Hayden
Read by Michael V. Hayden

For General Michael Hayden, playing to the edge means playing so close to the line that you get chalk dust on your cleats. This was Hayden's guiding principle when he ran the National Security Agency and the CIA. For. How did American intelligence respond to terrorism, a major war, and the most sweeping technological revolution in the last 500 years? What was the NSA like before 9/11? General Hayden's goals in writing this book are simple: No apologies. No excuses. Just what happened and why.
