Mean Dads for a Better America

The Genuine Rewards of an Old Fashioned Childhood

by Tom Shillue

Reader to be announced

In Mean Dads for a Better America, Tom Shillue reminisces about his childhood, his family, and the traditional values he cherishes. He takes us back to a time when neighbors disciplined each other's children without fear of being sued, when kids made it to the family table for dinner, when parents' rules were gospel, when the occasional fistfight was a fair way to solve a problem, and when children were free to make mistakes and experience the first tastes of independence.

The Court of Last Resort

by Erle Stanley Gardner
Read by Mel Foster

Erle Stanley Gardner, author of the famed Perry Mason series, devoted thousands of hours to a project called the "Court of Last Resort." This project sought to review and, if appropriate, to reverse miscarriages of justice against possibly innocent criminal defendants. These defendants' cases were examined for wrongful convictions owing to a host of factors not least of which was abuse or misinterpretation of medical and other forensic evidence. This is the resulting book—the book that earned Gardner his only Edgar Award.

The Case of the Runaway Corpse

The Perry Mason Mysteries, Book 44
by Erle Stanley Gardner
Read by Alexander Cendese

The two women were a cat-and-mouse combination. At first glance it seemed that little Mrs. Davenport was the mouse. But her husband said she was trying to kill him—that she had murdered once and would not hesitate to strike again. Mason's own curiosity made him take the case, and before long he was wanted for questioning himself. Question: was Myra Davenport a quiet little person, who enjoyed nothing better than pottering about in her garden? Or was she a poisoner, a minx, a modern Lucrezia Borgia?

Finding Gobi

A Little Dog with a Very Big Heart

by Dion Leonard
Read by Simon Bubb

Finding Gobi is the miraculous tale of Dion Leonard, a seasoned ultramarathon runner who crosses paths with a scrappy, stray dog while competing in a 150-mile race through the Gobi desert in China and Mongolia. The lovable pup, who would later earn the name “Gobi,” proved that what she lacked in size, she more than made up for in heart, as she went step for step with Dion over the Tian Shan mountains, across massive sand dunes, through yurt villages, and the black sands of the Gobi desert, keeping pace with him for nearly eighty miles.
