The Story of a New Name

The Neapolitan Novels, Book 2
By Elena Ferrante
Translated from the Italian by Ann Goldstein
Read by Hillary Huber

Best friends Lila and Elena are now in their twenties, and marriage appears to have imprisoned Lila. Meanwhile, Elena continues her journey of self-discovery. These young women share a complex and evolving bond that brings them close at times while driving them apart at others. Each vacillates between hurtful disregard and profound love for the other. With this complicated and meticulously portrayed friendship at the center of their emotional lives, the two girls mature into women, paying the sometimes cruel price that this passage exacts.

"Ferrante's gift for recreating real life stems as much from the quiet, unhurried rhythm of her writing as from the people and events she describes."

—New York Times

- The follow-up to Elena Ferrante's successful My Brilliant Friend
- Ferrante's Neapolitan novels have received rave reviews from publications and readers alike

The Four Last Things

by Timothy Hallinan
Reader to be announced

Edgar Award finalist Timothy Hallinan began his six-book Simeon Grist series with this white-knuckle mystery—a must-listen for fans of Robert B. Parker's Spenser novels.

"Televangelism, brainwashing... and a most unusual ally lead Grist to the denouement of this very satisfying mystery."

Written in the Blood

by Stephen Lloyd Jones
Read by Gemma Whelan

Written in the Blood is the stunning next chapter in Stephen Lloyd Jones' inventive and exciting saga that began with The String Diaries, an ambitious story of investigation and chase, of heroism and evil.

"A scary and exciting horror novel that keeps us off-kilter... We couldn't look away even if we tried."

CELEBRATING THE EXCELLENCE IN AUDIOBOOKS

2015 AUDIE FINALISTS

WINNERS TO BE ANNOUNCED 5/28/2015

THE Lowcountry Summer TRILOGY

The Summer Girls

By Mary Alice Monroe

Read by the author

Eighty-year-old Marietta Muir is a dowager of Charleston society who has retired to her historic summer home on Sullivan's Island. At the onset of summer, Marietta, "Mamaw," seeks to gather her three granddaughters—Carson, Eudora, and Harper—with the intent to reunite them after years apart. Monroe explores the depths and complexities of sisterhood, friendship and the power of forgiveness.

- Munroe is a New York Times bestselling and award-winning author of fourteen novels.
- Monroe draws on her own experiences as a volunteer and conservationist to bring to life the many complex and compelling layers of her home—the seductive sea, marshes, and maritime forests of the South Carolina lowcountry.
- The complete Lowcountry trilogy will be available from Blackstone
- Simultaneous with the Gallery paperback

"Monroe's resplendent storytelling shines even brighter...[with] startling insights into the intimate connection between nature and the human heart."

—Patti Callahan Henry, New York Times bestselling author
