JAMES PATTERSON

THE ALEX CROSS SERIES IS THE #1 US DETECTIVE SERIES OF THE PAST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, WITH MORE THAN 81 MILLION COPIES SOLD.

Cross Justice

The Alex Cross Series, Book 23

Read by Ruben Santiago-Hudson and Jefferson Mays

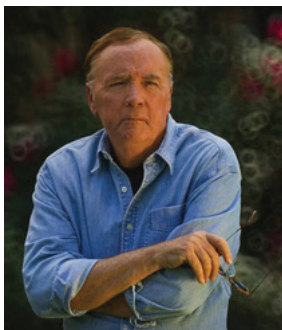

When his cousin is accused of a heinous crime, Alex Cross returns to his North Carolina hometown for the first time in over three decades. As he tries to prove his cousin's innocence in a town where everyone seems to be on the take, Cross unearths a family secret that forces him to question everything he's ever known. Chasing a ghost he believed was long dead, Cross gets pulled into a case that has local cops scratching their heads and needing his help: a grisly string of socialite murders. Now he's hot on the trail of both a brutal killer and the truth about his own past—and the answers he finds might be fatal.

The Prize

A Novel

by Jill Bialosky

Read by Tom Taylorson

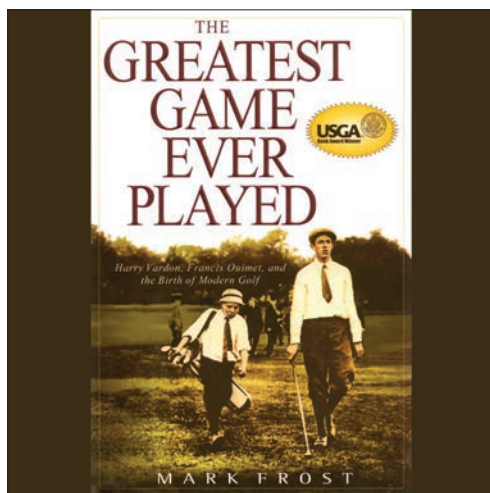

Influenced by his father, a brilliant Romantics scholar, Edward has always been more of a purist than an opportunist. But when a celebrated artist controlled by her insecurities betrays him—and another very different artist awakens his heart and stirs up secrets from his past—Edward will find himself unmoored from his marriage, his work, and the memory of his beloved father. And when the finalists of an important prize are announced, creating desperate maneuvering among artists seeking validation, Edward soon learns that betrayal comes in many forms, and he may be hurtling toward an act that challenges his own notions about what comprises a life worth living.

The Greatest Game Ever Played

Harry Vardon, Francis Ouimet, and the Birth of Modern Golf

by Mark Frost

Read by Robertson Dean

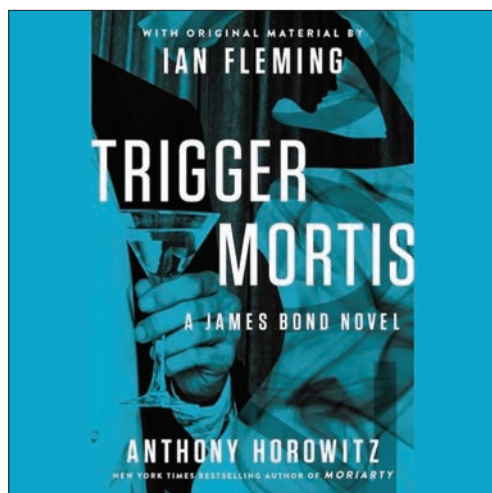

Francis Ouimet and Harry Vardon came from different worlds and different generations, but their passion for golf set them on parallel paths that would collide in the greatest match their sport had ever known. A young Massachusetts native, Francis was only three years removed from his youthful career as a lowly caddie. Harry was twice his age, the greatest British champion in history, and innovator of the modern grip and swing. When the two men finally came together in their legendary battle at the 1913 US Open, its heart-stopping climax gave rise to the sport of golf as we know it today.

- The Greatest Game Ever Played received enormous praise from major publications and reviewers alike
- Mark Frost also wrote and produced a film version of The Greatest Game Ever Played, which hit theaters in 2005

White Dresses

A Memoir of Love and Secrets, Mothers and Daughters

by Mary Pflum Peterson

Read by Mary Pflum Peterson

As a successful television journalist at Good Morning America, Mary Pflum is known as a polished and highly organized producer. It's a persona at odds with her tortured childhood, where she watched her vulnerable mother, Anne, fill their house with teetering piles of assorted "treasures." But one thing has always united mother and daughter: their love of white dresses. From the dress worn by Mary's mother when she became a nun to graduation dresses and christening gowns, these dresses embodied hope and new beginnings. Through the white dresses, pivotal events in their lives were celebrated—even as Mary tried in vain to save Anne from herself.

The Argonauts

by Maggie Nelson

Read by Maggie Nelson

Maggie Nelson's The Argonauts is a genre-bending memoir, a work of "autotheory" offering fresh, fierce, and timely thinking about desire, identity, and the limitations and possibilities of love and language. At its center is a romance: the story of the author's relationship with the artist Harry Dodge. This story, which includes Nelson's account of falling in love with Dodge, who is fluidly gendered, as well as her journey to and through a pregnancy, is an intimate portrayal of the complexities and joys of (queer) family-making. Nelson's insistence on radical individual freedom and the value of caretaking becomes the rallying cry of this thoughtful, uncompromising book.

- The Argonauts has received enormous praise from major publications, including starred reviews from Publishers Weekly and Kirkus Reviews

Winter Stroll

by Elin Hilderbrand

Read by Erin Bennett

Christmas on Nantucket finds Winter Street Inn owner Kelley Quinn and his family busily preparing for the holiday season. Though the year has brought tragedy, the Quinns have much to celebrate: Kelley has reunited with his first wife, Kevin and Isabelle have a new baby, and Ava is finally dating a nice guy. But when Kelley's estranged wife shows up on the island, along with Kevin's devious ex-wife Norah, the Inn is suddenly overrun with romantic feuds. With jealousy, passion, and eggnog consumption at an all-time high, it's going to take a whole lot more than a Christmas miracle to get the Quinns—and the Inn—through the holidays intact.

Destiny has chosen Skylar, and now it might destroy her.

Skylar Reid is slowly adjusting to the powers that make her a Greater-Than; it's the rest of her “normal” life that's too hard to handle. Her boyfriend, Milo, is distant, and her mentor is obsessed with rescuing her sister from the producers of the Destiny drug.

Then a secret Destiny lab pops up in Skylar's town, and her best friend Calvin is accidentally injected. After spending years in a wheelchair, the drug gives Calvin the ability to walk—but could cause him to lose his mind. Can Skylar master her abilities to protect her friends before the danger she attracts destroys them?

SUZANNE BROCKMANN and her daughter, MELANIE BROCKMANN, have been creative partners, on and off, for many years. Suzanne is a New York Times bestselling author of more than fifty books and is widely recognized as one of the leading authors of romantic suspense novels. Empire of Self

A Life of Gore Vidal

by Jay Parini

Reader to be announced

The product of thirty years of friendship and conversation, Jay Parini's Empire of Self probes behind the glittering surface of Gore Vidal's colorful life to reveal the complex emotional and sexual truth underlying his celebrity-strewn life. Provided with unique access to Vidal's life and his papers, Jay Parini crafts Vidal's life into an accessible, entertaining story that looks behind the scenes at the man and his work in ways never possible before his death. This is the biography Gore Vidal has long needed.

- The first biography of Vidal to be written after his death in 2012 and thus the first afforded the freedom to tell the whole and complicated truth of his life.
- Jay Parini is a top-drawer biographer with the unique qualification of a thirty-year friendship with Vidal.

"A book of greatly astute literary understanding, prepared with a vitality that perfectly suits Vidal's fast-paced, vivid life."

An Uncommon Bond

by Jeff Brown
Read by Ray Chase

This intimate and revealing account is told through the eyes of Lowen as he experiences the heights and depths that come with meeting his beloved, Sarah. In this remarkably engaging story, we walk beside the lovers as they touch the divine and struggle to ground their love in daily life. From sexuality to human foible, they ultimately have to choose: surrender to this love or shrink back to mediocrity, work through their emotional baggage or flee the connection, open to the next portal of possibility or postpone it until the next lifetime. Shaped in love's cosmic kiln, Sarah and Lowen become a symbol of our own longing for wholeness in the presence of another.

- An Uncommon Bond has earned enormous critical praise from both readers and the author's peers
- A unique romance novel that teaches couples how to form a truly conscious relationship

Tall, Dark, and Wicked

The Wicked Trilogy, Book 2
By Madeline Hunter
Reader to be announced

A well-known barrister and son of a duke, Ives confines his passionate impulses to discreet affairs. But a twist of fate has him looking for a new lover right when a fascinating woman shows up in his chambers asking him to help save her father from the gallows. Unfortunately, he has already been asked to serve as the prosecutor in the case, which only ensures close encounters with Miss Padua Belvoir. And every encounter increases his desire to tutor her in pleasure's wicked ways. Having always been too tall, too willful, and too smart to appeal to men, Padua is shocked when Ives shows interest in her. She had hoped he might be her father's salvation. Instead, he is her worst adversary—and biggest temptation.

Aunt Sass

Christmas Stories

By P. L. Travers

Foreword by Victoria Coren Mitchell

Reader to be announced

P. L. Travers wrote with a signature blend of sugar and spice; her characters, including Mary Poppins, are endearing, outsized, and cozy. Her talent for capturing the perspective of children shines through in Aunt Sass: Christmas Stories. Each of the stories in this book was written as a holiday gift, sent to her friends and family. Now her millions of readers and generations of filmgoers will recognize how she used her life story to inform her fiction. Whether it is Aunt Sass herself, the Chinese cook whose "heathen" ways show the narrator the path to salvation, or the ex-jockey whose life work is not at all what it appears, the characters are unforgettable.

Gatefather

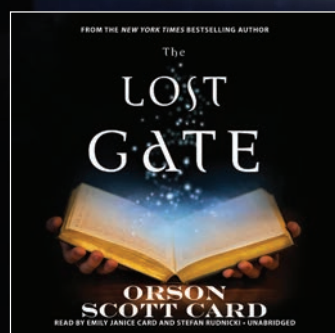

THE MITHER MAGES SERIES, BOOK 3

Danny North is the first Earth-born Gate Mage in nearly two thousand years to survive and claim his power, for families of Westil in exile on Earth have a treaty requiring the death of any suspected Gate Mage to avoid future wars among themselves. Because a Gate Mage could give his own family a terrible advantage over all the others by building a Great Gate back to Westil. And if the families didn't kill them, the Gate Thief would—that mysterious mage who destroyed every Great Gate before it could be opened. But Danny battled the Gate Thief and won. What he didn't know at the time was that the Gate Thief had a very good reason for closing the Great Gates.

MARK TWAIN

(1835–1910), ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR AND INFLUENTIAL AUTHORS AMERICA HAS EVER PRODUCED, HAS BEEN CALLED THE GREATEST HUMORIST OF HIS AGE AND THE FATHER OF AMERICAN LITERATURE.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF MARK TWAIN, VOL. 3

Edited by Benjamin Griffin, Harriet Elinor Smith, and other editors of the Mark Twain Project
Read by Grover Gardner

When the first volume of Mark Twain's uncensored Autobiography was published in 2010, it was hailed as a crucial document for our understanding of the great humorist's life and times. This final volume crowns and completes his life's work, chronicling his inner and outer life through a series of daily dictations that go wherever his fancy leads.

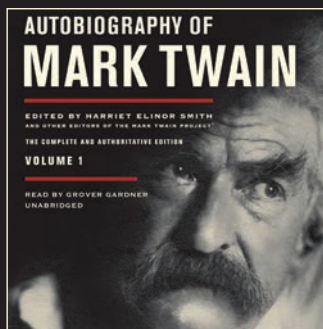

- The first volume of this autobiography was an instant New York Times bestseller
- Grover Gardner won an Earphones Award for his narration of the first volume
- This uncensored version of the beloved author's autobiography includes embargoed, personal texts only now free to be published

The Guilty

The Will Robie Series, Book 4

by David Baldacci

Reader to come shortly

When Will Robie receives word that his father—who he hasn't spoken to in years—has been arrested for murder, Robie immediately heads home to investigate. His hometown is a remote, economically depressed small town where everyone still remembers him as a high school sports star who left one night and was never seen again. Dan Robie is a local judge, and he's suspected of murdering a man who appeared before him in court. Robie and his father have never seen eye-to-eye, and he pushes Robie almost to the point of leaving town. But when another murdered victim shows up, Robie realizes that there may be more to the story than just his father's vigilante justice.

The Chicago World's Fair Mysteries, Book 3

by Shelley Gray

Reader to be announced

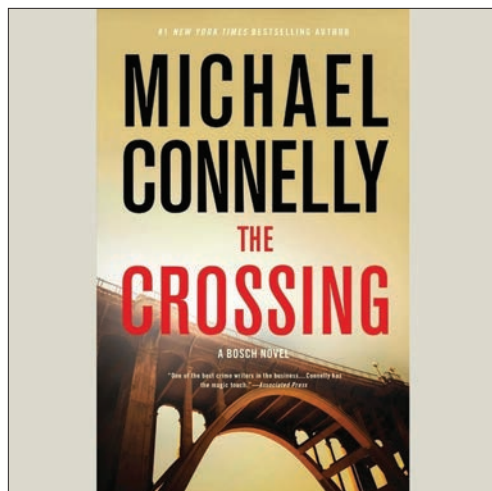

Just months after the closure of the Chicago World's Fair, librarian Lydia Bancroft finds herself fascinated by a mysterious dark-haired patron. He has never given her his name; all she knows is that he loves books as much as she does. Only when he rescues her in the lobby of the Hartman Hotel does she discover that his name is Sebastian Marks, that he lives at the top of the hotel, and that most everyone in Chicago is intrigued by him. The two form a fragile friendship, but when she discovers that he is the proprietor of an infamous saloon and gambling club, she is shocked. Lydia insists on visiting the club one fateful night and is suddenly a suspect in a murder. Is Sebastian everything her heart believes him to be?

Crimson Shore

The Pendergast Novels, Book 15

by Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child

Read by René Auberjonois

Special Agent Pendergast takes on a private case in Exmouth, Massachusetts—a quaint village on the coast north of Salem—to investigate the theft of a valuable wine cellar. He travels to the seaside town with his ward, Constance Greene, where they quickly discover something far more sinister: a bricked-up niche in the wine cellar that holds the remains of a man, tortured and then entombed alive 150 years ago. But why? The puzzle is compounded when they discover a murdered body—covered with mysterious symbols—in the salt marshes behind Exmouth ... the place where, legend has it, the real witches of Salem took refuge after fleeing the 1692 witch hunts.

All of Us and Everything

A Novel

By Bridget Asher

Reader to be announced

Life as Augusta Rockwell knows it changes once she unearths a box of old letters written by her estranged husband, Nick Flemming, the love of her life and the father her three children have never known. She's told her daughters that their absent father was actually a spy, which is why he couldn't be part of their lives. But the letters reveal that Nick has secretly been keeping tabs on his family all these years from afar—a discovery that, while shocking, has the potential to mend the fractured and wayward lives of the three Rockwell sisters.

- Bridget Asher's novels are consistently praised by publications and readers alike
- Social media campaign
- Will appeal to fans of The Husband's Secret by Liane Moriarty and He's Gone by Deb Caletti

The Arrival

by J. W. Brazier
Reader to be announced

White River, Arkansas, 1980. In a secret lab, top-level medical scientists work together to harness the power of a revolutionary new DNA manipulation technique. But when the project finally comes to fruition with the birth of a specially "designed" baby, it just as abruptly comes to a bloody halt. Nearly forty years later, the small town awakens one morning to find itself ground zero of a joint UN-US terrorist training exercise. Outraged citizens fight back, but it soon becomes clear that something evil has arrived in White River—a darkness unleashed on an unsuspecting world.

Tied Up in Knots

How Getting What They Wanted Has Made Women Miserable
by Andrea Tantaros
Reader to be announced

Women today have more choices and options than ever. So why are they so stressed out? In a covetous quest to attain what men have, women have been told we should work like men, behave like men, and have sex like men. There's just one problem: women aren't men. Instead of feeling at peace with their newfound freedoms, females are finding themselves tied up in knots. With scathing wit and insight, Tantaros calls out those sending the wrong messages to American women, and praises those who get it right.

THE BLOOD FLAG

by James W. Huston

While traveling through Germany, FBI agent Kyle Morrissey and his family encounter neo-Nazis perpetuating the evil philosophy he thought his father's generation had ended once and for all. Kyle soon discovers that tens of thousands are ready to raise the swastika once more. Baffled and furious, he embarks on a personal mission to bring down the movement. But how? In trying to understand the history of Nazism, Kyle learns that the key to his success is the Blood Flag, a mysterious Nazi relic last seen in 1944. From DC to Argentina, the Blood Flag leads Kyle on a worldwide race in an attempt to end international Nazism for good.

- New York Times bestselling author
- National ad campaign in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Washington Post, and more
- Huston has earned starred reviews from Kirkus Reviews and Publishers Weekly

A MAN CALLED TRENT

A Western Story

by Louis L'Amour

A Man Called Trent opens on nester Dick Moffitt lying dead where he was killed by King Bill Hale's riders. His son Jack and adopted daughter Sally, who witnessed the murder, go for safety to a cabin owned by a man called "Trent," an alias for Kilkenny, who is seeking to escape his reputation as a gunfighter.

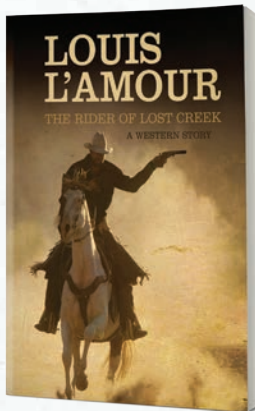

"L'Amour is the kind of storyteller who makes the wolves come out of the woods to listen."

The instant Captain Declan Frobisher lays eyes on Lady Edwina Delbraith, he knows she's the woman he wants as his wife. Even before they tie the knot, Edwina shatters the illusion that her character is as delicate as her appearance suggests. Far from adhering to orthodox mores, she and her ducal family are even more unconventional than the Frobishers. So when Declan is required to sail to West Africa, Edwina knows she must accompany him. A secret mission with unknown villains flings unexpected dangers into their path as the newlyweds discover that making an unconventional marriage work requires something they both possess: bold and adventurous hearts.

The Fall

The Strain Trilogy, Book 2

by Guillermo del Toro and Chuck Hogan

Read by Daniel Oreskes

The vampiric virus has taken over New York City. It is spreading and soon will envelop the globe. Amid the chaos, Eph Goodweather leads a band out to stop these bloodthirsty monsters. But it may be too late. A war erupts between old and new world vampires, each vying for control. At the center of the conflict lies a book—an ancient text that contains the vampires' entire history ... and their darkest secrets. Whoever finds the book can control the outcome of the war and, ultimately, the fate of us all. With the future of humankind in the balance, Eph and his team must combat a terror whose ultimate plan is more terrible than anyone has imagined—a fate worse than annihilation.

Patrick MODIANO

2014 Nobel Prize Winner in Literature

"The best place to fling oneself into Mr. Modiano's oeuvre."

—New York Times, on Missing Person

"A beautiful example of Modiano's fluid storytelling."

—Booklist, on Honeymoon

Patrick Modiano is a bestselling novelist and the winner of some of the most prestigious literary awards in France, including the Prix Goncourt and the Prix Mondial Cino Del Duca for lifetime achievement. In 2014 he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature for "the art of memory with which he has evoked the most ungraspable human destinies and uncovered the life-world of the occupation."

- Modiano's books consistently receive enormous praise from major publications
- Will appeal to fans of Journey by Moonlight by Antal Szerb and Blood Brothers by Ernst Haffner

Missing Person

Translated from the French
by Daniel Weissbort
Reader to be announced

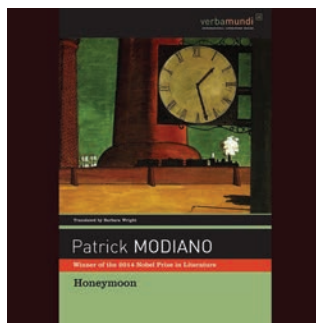

For ten years Guy Roland has lived without a past. His current life and name were given to him by his recently retired boss, Hutte, who welcomed him, a one-time client, into his detective agency. Guy makes full use of Hutte's files—directories, yearbooks, and papers of all kinds going back half a century—but leads to his former life are few. Could he really be that person in a photograph, a young man remembered by some as a South American attaché? Or was he someone else, perhaps the disappeared scion of a prominent local family? He interviews strangers and is tantalized by half-clues until, at last, he grasps a thread that leads him through a maze of his own repressed experience.

Honeymoon

Translated from the French
by Barbara Wright
Reader to be announced

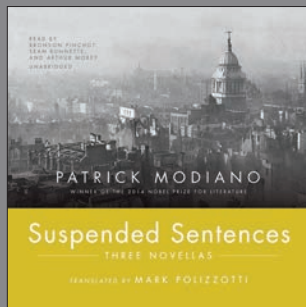

Jean B. is submerged in a world where night and day, past and present have no demarcations. Having spent his entire adult life making documentary movies about lost explorers, Jean suddenly decides to abandon his wife and career and takes what seems to be a journey to nowhere. He spends his solitary days recounting or imagining the lives of Ingrid and Rigaud, a refugee couple he met more than twenty years ago. Little by little, their story takes on more reality than Jean's existence, as his excavation of the past slowly becomes an all-encompassing obsession.

Suspended Sentences

Translated from the French by Mark Polizzotti
Read by Bronson Pinchot, Sean Runnette, and Arthur Morey

Each novella in this volume represents a sterling example of the author's originality and appeal, while Mark Polizzotti's superb translations capture not only Modiano's distinctive narrative voice but also the matchless grace and beauty of his prose. Though originally published separately, these novellas also form a single, compelling whole.

"[Modiano is] direct and precise but also gently melancholy, like the squeezed essence of passing time. Mark Polizzotti's translation expertly catches the timbre of his voice."

Delirium

The Delirium Trilogy, Book 1

by Lauren Oliver

Read by Sarah Drew

In an alternate United States, love has been declared a dangerous disease, and the government forces everyone who reaches eighteen to have a procedure called the cure. Living with her aunt, uncle, and cousins in Portland, Maine, Lena Haloway is very much looking forward to being cured and living a safe, predictable life. She watched love destroy her mother and isn't about to make the same mistakes. But with ninety-five days left until her treatment, Lena meets enigmatic Alex, a boy from the wilds who lives under the government's radar. What will happen if they do the unthinkable and fall in love?

"Artfully detailed prose...The abrupt ending leaves enough unanswered questions to set breathless readers up for volume two of this trilogy."

MINIONS

The Junior Novel

by Universal Studios

Read by Bob Walter

Since they first appeared, Minions have searched the planet for the right villain to be their master. In their hunt for the perfect leader, they have served dinosaurs, kings, and even monsters. But it's time for a new master ... if only they can find one! Join Kevin, Stuart, and Bob as they travel the world and attend Villain-Con, looking for the most despicable bad guy (or gal!) out there to lead them.

BROOKLYN
A Novel
by Colm Tóibín
Read by Kirsten Potter

In southeast Ireland in the early 1950s, Eilis Lacey is one among many of her generation who must leave home to find work in America. As she begins to settle into her new life and to fall in love, news from home calls her back, opening new possibilities that conflict deeply with the life she has left behind in Brooklyn.
