Bittersweet

by Colleen McCullough • Read by Cat Gould

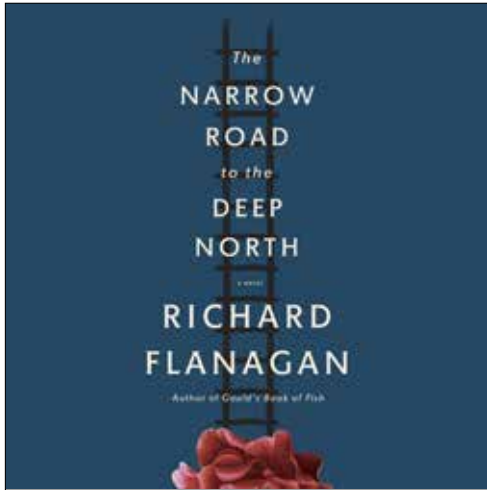

Because they are two sets of twins, the four Latimer sisters are as close as can be, yet each has her own dream: Edda wants to be a doctor, Tufts wants to organize everything, Grace won't be told what to do, and Kitty wants to be known for something other than her beauty. They are famous throughout New South Wales for their beauty, wit, and ambition, but as they step into womanhood, they are not thrilled about the limited prospects life holds for them. Together they decide to enroll in a training program for nurses—a new option for women of their time. As they become immersed in hospital life and the demands of their training, they meet people and encounter challenges that spark new maturity and independence.

- National print and online media campaign
- This is McCullough's first romantic epic since her #1 New York Times bestseller *The Thorn Birds
- Will appeal to readers of Chris Bohjalian's The Sandcastle Girls and Philippa Gregory's *Meridon

The Narrow Road to the Deep North

by Richard Flanagan • Read by David Atlas

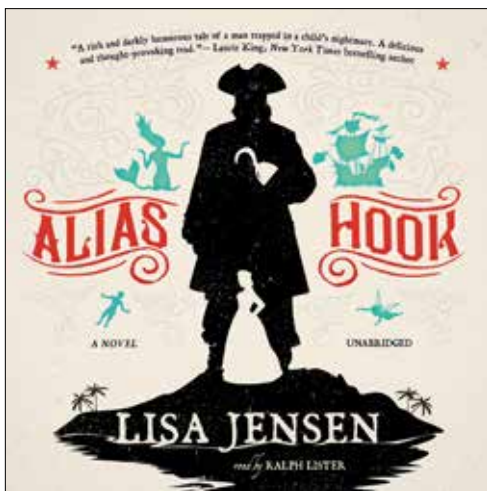

In the despair of a Japanese POW camp on the Thailand-Burma Death Railway in 1943, Australian surgeon Dorrigo Evans is haunted by his love affair with his uncle's young wife two years earlier. His life is a daily struggle to save the men under his command from starvation, cholera, and pitiless beatings—until he receives a letter that will change him forever. Moving deftly from the POW camp to contemporary Australia, from the experiences of Dorrigo and his comrades to those of the Japanese guards, this savagely beautiful novel tells a story of death, love, and family, exploring the many forms of good and evil, war and truth, guilt and transcendence.

- Flanagan's debut novel won Australia's National Fiction Award, and he has also received the Commonwealth Writers' Prize and numerous other awards
- This novel has been twelve years in the making
- This novel is already a #1 bestseller in Australia and has been hailed as a masterpiece, the crowning achievement of Flanagan's career so far

Alias Hook

by Lisa Jensen • Read by Ralph Lister

Meet Captain James Benjamin Hookbridge, a witty, educated Restoration-era privateer cursed to play villain to a pack of malicious little boys in a pointless war that never ends. But everything changes when Stella Parrish, a grown woman, dreams her way to the Neverland in defiance of Pan's rules. From the glamour of the Fairy Revels to the mysterious underwater temple beneath the Mermaid Lagoon, the magical forces of the Neverland open up for Stella as they never have for Hook. And in the pirate captain himself, she begins to see someone far more complex than the storybook villain. With Stella's knowledge of fairy tales, she might be Hook's last chance for redemption.

The Pecan Man

by Cassie Dandridge Selleck • Read by Suzanne Toren

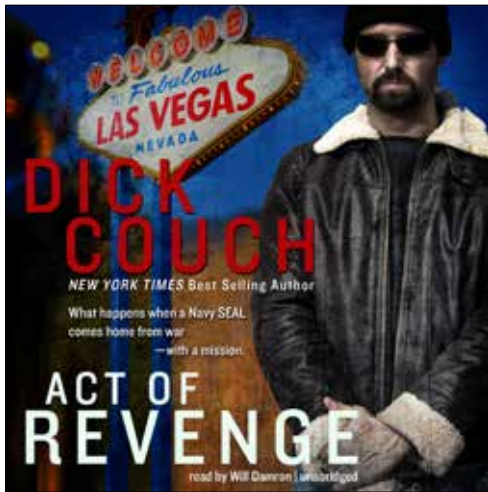

In the summer of 1976, recently widowed and childless, Ora Lee Beckworth hires a homeless old black man to mow her lawn. The neighborhood children call him the Pee-can Man; their mothers call them inside whenever he appears. When the police chief's son is found stabbed to death near his camp, the man Ora knows as Eddie is arrested and charged with murder. Twenty-five years later, Ora sets out to tell the truth about the Pecan Man. In narrating her story, Ora discovers more about herself than she could ever have imagined.

- Has been compared to such timeless novels as The Help and To Kill a Mockingbird
- Author website: ThePecanMan.wordpress.com
- A great choice for book clubs; the author has posted reader questions on her blog
- Originally a self-published novel, The Pecan Man has been well received among readers, having already sold more than 20,000 copies in the first few months of its release

Act of Revenge

A Novel

by Dick Couch • Read by Will Damron

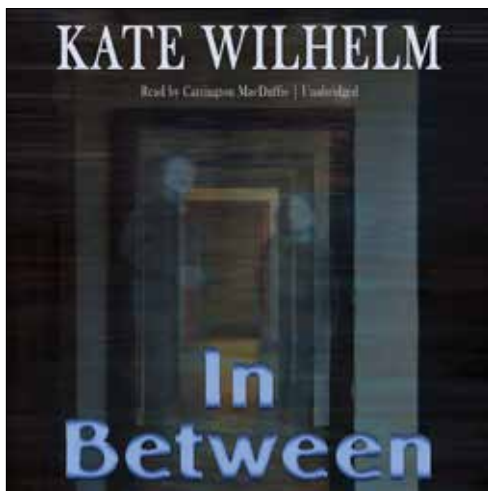

Garrett Walker is a warrior, a Navy SEAL. For fifteen years he's been continuously at war—combat rotation after combat rotation. He's a veteran of the close fight and has taken many lives—all in the service of his country. That's about to change. Since college, Garrett and his identical twin, Brandon, have been estranged. Then, after the death of their younger brother, yet another tragedy strikes: Brandon is caught in the web of a Russian Mafia organ-theft ring. He's just another business man in Las Vegas—until two men enter his hotel room and crudely remove his kidneys. It's a rare crime, but for those few in the black-market organ trade it's easy pickings. But they didn't count on the resiliency of the one twin, or the rage of the other.

- Couch is the author of Tom Clancy's Act of Valor, which was later adapted into a Golden Globe–nominated film
- Will appeal to fans of Stephen Coonts, W. E. B. Griffin, and Dale Brown

In Between

by Kate Wilhelm • Read by Carrington MacDuffie

Sam and Lori had only just met and now they are dead, the result of a car accident. Accident? No. Dead? Not exactly. In life, Sam was a successful playwright, Lori a secretary for Ben Carnahan, a scheming movie producer who wants Sam's new script and whose negligence on a movie set twenty years earlier killed Lori's father. Now Sam and Lori are ghosts out of sequence with the real world yet fully aware of their existence. As they work together to find out what happened to them, a plot to murder Ben is revealed. As ghosts, how can they possibly stop this conspiracy? They can't contact the living, for rules are rules—in life and in death and even when you're in between.

- Blackstone has a large selection of Kate Wilhelm's titles, including thirteen of the Barbara Holloway mysteries
- Hugo and Nebula award–winning author
- Wilhelm is the author of the hugely popular Barbara Holloway novels

Cancel the Wedding

A Novel

by Carolyn Dingman

Read by Tavia Gilbert

Olivia is finally coming to terms with her mother Jane's premature death from cancer. But when Jane's final wish is revealed, Olivia is mystified. Her mother rarely spoke of her rural Southern hometown and never went back to visit—so why does she want her to return to Huntley, Georgia, to scatter her ashes?

A Detective
Michael Bennett
Thriller

JAMES PATTERSON BURN & MICHAEL LEDWIDGE

JAMES PATTERSON is one of the most popular writers of all time, holding the world record for most New York Times bestsellers. He has won an Edgar Award, the mystery world's highest honor, and his novels Kiss the Girls and Along Came a Spider were made into feature films.

Back in the city that never sleeps, Detective Bennett takes over a chaotic Outreach Squad in Harlem, where he receives an unusual call: a man claims to have seen a group of well-dressed men holding a bizarre party in a condemned building. Bennett dismisses the report. But when a charred body is found in that very same building, he is forced to take the demented caller seriously.

- Print run 600,000
- The Michael Bennett series is the #1 bestselling New York–based detective series ever, with over fourteen million Michael Bennett books sold worldwide
- Ledwidge and Patterson have coauthored seven New York Times bestsellers

What If?

Serious Scientific Answers to Absurd Hypothetical Questions

by Randall Munroe • Read by Wil Wheaton

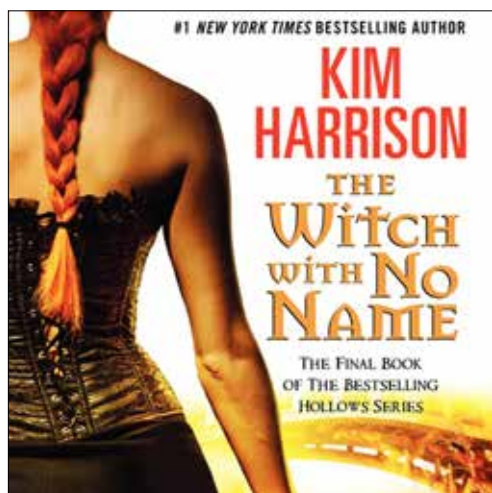

Millions of people visit xkcd.com each week to read Randall Munroe's iconic webcomic. His stick-figure drawings about science, technology, language, and love have a large and passionate following. Fans of xkcd ask Munroe many strange questions. What if you tried to hit a baseball pitched at 90 percent of the speed of light? If there were a robot apocalypse, how long would humanity last? In pursuit of answers, Munroe runs computer simulations, pores over stacks of declassified military research memos, solves differential equations, and consults with nuclear reactor operators. His responses are masterpieces of clarity and hilarity, complemented by signature xkcd comics.

- Print run 100,000
- xkcd is an incredibly popular webcomic, garnering over 59 million unique visitors and over 1.1 billion page views in 2012 alone
- Includes the best entries from the What If? site, updated and expanded with corrections and additional information, along with dozens of new questions and answers

The Witch with No Name

The Hollows Series, Book 13

by Kim Harrison • Read by Marguerite Gavin

Rachel Morgan's come a long way from the clutzy runner of Dead Witch Walking. She's faced vampires and werewolves, banshees, witches, and soul-eating demons. She's crossed worlds, channeled gods, and accepted her place as a day-walking demon. She's lost friends and lovers and family, and an old enemy has become something much more. But power demands responsibility, and world-changers must always pay a price. That time is now. To save Ivy's soul and the rest of the living vampires, to keep the demonic ever after and our own world from destruction, Rachel Morgan will risk everything.

- The final installment in the New York Times bestselling Hollows series
- Marguerite Gavin's narration of both Black Magic Sanction and Ever After were nominated for Audie Awards

The Blood of an Englishman

The Agatha Raisin Mysteries, Book 25

Reader to be announced

EVEN THOUGH AGATHA RAISIN loathes amateur dramatics, her friend Mrs. Bloxby has persuaded her to support the local pantomime. Stifling a yawn at the production of Babes in the Woods, Agatha watches as the baker, playing an ogre, struts about the stage. Then a trapdoor opens ... followed by a scream and then silence. Surely this isn't the way the scene was rehearsed? When it turns out the baker has been murdered, Agatha puts her team of private detectives on the case. They soon discover more feuds and temperamental behavior in amateur theatrics than in a professional stage show—and face more and more danger as the team gets too close to the killer.

“Beaton has a winner in the irrepressible, romance-hungry Agatha.”

—Chicago Sun-Times, praise for the series

“Fascinating, compelling, and more than a little entertaining, Wheat Belly may be the most important health book of the year.”

—Dana Carpender, author of 500 Low-Carb Recipes

Wheat Belly Total Health

The Ultimate Grain-Free Health and Weight-Loss Life Plan

by William Davis, MD • Read by Tom Weiner

This follow-up to the mega bestseller Wheat Belly helps readers take command of their lives and health in the aftermath of wheat. There are many strategies that will help heal the damage caused by years of a wheat-filled diet, and many of these lessons have been learned in the years following Wheat Belly's original release. Reordering your life after wheat is about learning how to regain full metabolic, gastrointestinal, thyroid, cardiovascular, hormonal, sleep, neurological, bone, and joint health. Understanding the strategies and putting them to use can take health several steps higher, even for those who have already had major health success without wheat.

Joyful

The Return to Sugarcreek Series, Book 3

by Shelley Shepard Gray • Reader to be announced

Randall Beiler is doing his best to put his family's needs first, even forsaking love. But he knows he needs help caring for his siblings and keeping the house together. When his brother offers pretty Elizabeth Nolt a job taking care of the house and cooking for the family, Randall is furious and guilty about the way he once broke Elizabeth's heart. But when he learns Elizabeth and her grandmother are struggling to make ends meet, he knows the offer is the right thing for everyone. Elizabeth wants to refuse to stay far away from the man who hurt her but she needs the money. Though she vows to protect her heart, spending time in the Beiler household makes Elizabeth realize that, while she's older and wiser, her love for Randall still burns strong.

- Gray's novels have been New York Times and USA Today bestsellers, and she has won the Holt Medallion twice

An Italian Wife

by Ann Hood • Read by Cassandra Campbell

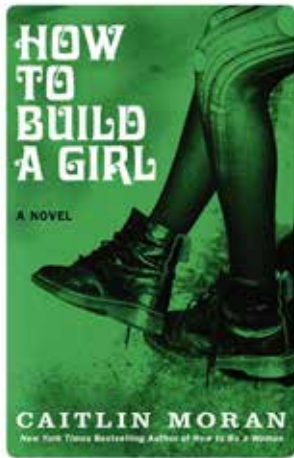

An Italian Wife opens in turn-of-the-century Italy, when young Josephine Rimaldi is forced to follow her new husband to America in an arranged marriage and finds herself in a strange country with a man she doesn't know or love. Bound by tradition, she gives birth to seven children; the last, conceived in a passionate affair, Josephine must give up for adoption. Josephine spends the rest of her life searching for this child, even as her other children go off to war, get married, and make their own mistakes: Her son suffers in World War I. Her daughter struggles to assimilate in the new world of the 1950s American suburbs. And her granddaughters experiment with the sex, drugs, and rock and roll of the 1970s.

- Author tour, including Philadelphia, New York City, Vermont, Providence, and Boston

How to Build a Girl

A Novel

by Caitlin Moran • Reader to be announced

It's 1990. Johanna Morrigan, fourteen, has shamed herself so badly on local TV that she decides there's no point in being Johanna anymore and reinvents herself as Dolly Wilde—fast-talking, hard-drinking Gothic hero and full-time Lady Sex Adventurer. She will save her poverty-stricken family by becoming a writer—like Jo in Little Women, or the Bröntes—but without the dying young bit. By sixteen, she's smoking cigarettes, getting drunk, and working for a music paper. She's writing pornographic letters to rock stars, having sex with all kinds of men, and eviscerating bands in reviews. But what happens when Johanna realizes she's built Dolly with a fatal flaw?

"There are lots of things to love about Caitlin Moran's How to Be a Woman—A glorious, timely stand against sexism so ingrained we barely even notice it."

—New York Times

• Print Run 75,000

• New York Times bestselling author Caitlin Moran is hailed as "The UK's answer to Tina Fey, Chelsea Handler, and Lena Dunham all rolled into one" (Marie Claire)

JEFF VANDERMEER

Acceptance

The Southern Reach Trilogy, Book 3

Read by Carolyn McCormick, Bronson Pinchot, and Xe Sands

It is winter in Area X. A new team embarks across the border on a mission to find a member of a previous expedition who may have been left behind. As they press deeper into the unknown—navigating new terrain and new challenges—the threat to the outside world becomes only more daunting.

“I’m loving the Southern Reach trilogy by Jeff VanderMeer. Recommended by an indie bookseller. Creepy and fascinating.”

—STEPHEN KING

“There’s something Poe-like in this tightening, increasingly paranoid focus. But where Poe kept his most vicious blows relatively oblique, VanderMeer drives them deep.”

—NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW, EDITOR’S CHOICE, ON AUTHORITY

“VanderMeer has crafted an evocative adventure...it is a captivating meander, filled with lush prose describing naturalistic imagery that veers between the beautiful and the terrifying...Annihilation will scare you and move you, and you might never know why.”

—ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY ON ANNIHILATION

- The first book in the series has been optioned for film by Paramount with Scott Rudin as producer

Midnight at the Pera Palace

The Birth of Modern Istanbul
by Charles King
Read by Grover Gardner

With beguiling prose and rich
character portraits, Charles King brings to life a remarkable era when a storied city stumbled into the modern world and reshaped the meaning of cosmopolitanism.

"Intrigue, violence, sex, and espionage, all set against the slow dimming of Ottoman magnificence. I loved this book."

—Simon Winchester, National Book Critics Circle Award nominee

For James Bond and the British Secret Service, the stakes couldn't be higher. 007's mission is to neutralize the Russian operative Le Chiffre by ruining him at the baccarat table, forcing his Soviet masters to "retire" him. When Le Chiffre hits a losing streak, Bond discovers his luck is in—that is, until he meets Vesper Lynd, a glamorous agent who might yet prove to be his downfall.

"An intense, fascinating, and moody piece of fiction."

—Raymond Benson, author of High Time to Kill

DAN STEVENS is internationally known for his role as Matthew Crawley in the hit television drama Downton Abbey, and more recently he has starred in films including Summer In February, The Fifth Estate, A Walk Among the Tombstones, The Guest, The Cobbler, and Night At The Museum 3. Dan's other screen work includes Vamps, Hilde, Sense & Sensibility, Maxwell, and The Line of Beauty, and his theater work includes The Heiress on Broadway, and Arcadia, Every Good Boy Deserves Favour, The Vortex, and Hay Fever in London.

"I can't think of a bad time or place for listening to any of Ian Fleming's James Bond novels... Any of them will have you driving in circles rather than arrive at your destination."

—Times (London)

When 007 goes to Harlem, it's not just for the jazz. This is the kingdom of Mr. Big, master of crime, voodoo baron and partner in SMERSH's grim company of death. Those who Mr Big cannot possess, he crushes—like his beautiful prisoner, Solitaire, and her would-be saviours James Bond and Agency man, Felix Leiter. All three are marked out as victims in a trail of treachery and torture that leads from New York's underworld to the shark-infested island in the sun that Mr. Big calls his own.

"Hard-hitting and violent in a way that none of the others are."

—Raymond Benson, author of High Time to Kill

RORY KINNEAR, a renowned theater actor, won the Evening Standard Award for Best Actor for his performances as Angelo in Measure for Measure and the title role in Hamlet, and gained an Olivier Award for his portrayal of Sir Fopling Flutter in The Man of Mode. His TV credits include Count Arthur Strong, Lucan, Women in Love, and Black Mirror, and he played Bill Tanner in the Bond films Quantum of Solace and Skyfall.

The Moonraker project has a millionaire backer, the war hero Sir Hugo Drax—a man who, it seems, cheats at cards. With a ballistic rocket at stake, Sir Hugo's exposure could threaten Britain's latest defence system, so James Bond is asked to investigate. Moving from London's most exclusive gambling club to a missile silo on the Channel coast, 007 and his Special Branch assistant, Gala Brand, discover there's more to Drax than meets the eye.

"Fleming is splendid; he stops at nothing."

—New Statesman

BILL NIGHY is a multi-award-winning actor who has appeared in many TV dramas, including State of Play, The Girl in the Café, and Page Eight, for which he received a Golden Globe Best Actor nomination. He won Best Supporting Actor BAFTA for his role as Billy Mack in Love Actually, while his other films include Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows: Part 1, and the smash hit The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel.

"Fleming has set his stamp on the story of action and intrigue...his proper place in literature is with those demi-giants of an earlier day: Jules Verne, Rider Haggard, Conan Doyle."

—Kingsley Amis

Diamonds are being smuggled on a formidable scale from Africa to America via Britain. 007's assignment is to break the smuggling ring. It's a dangerous mission that takes him to the racecourse and mud-baths of Saratoga Springs, the gaming tables of Las Vegas, the ghost town of Spectreville and beyond. The Spangled Mob threatens to be too much even for Bond, but help is at hand in the shape of co-conspirator Tiffany Case.

"A first-rate thriller, but above all, it's a terrific novel."

—Jonathan Kellerman, New York Times bestselling author

DIAMIAN LEWIS has twice been nominated for a Golden Globe, for his role as Sergeant Brody in Homeland and also for his role as WWII hero Richard Winter in Band of Brothers. Other TV credits include The Forsyte Saga, Life, Warriors, and Jeffrey Archer: The Truth. His film appearances include The Escapist and Your Highness.

Ernst Stavro Blofeld, leader of the terrorist organisation SPECTRE, has hijacked an American plane loaded with atomic weapons. Unless his demands are met he will destroy one of the world's major cities. With only one week to locate the missing bombs, Bond goes to the Bahamas where he encounters Blofeld's right-hand man, Emilio Largo and his mistress Domino. With time running out, Bond learns that sharks are not the only killers in the Caribbean Sea.

"Extremely moody and dark in tone, and full of dynamic action."

The last book written by Ian Fleming, but by no means the least. In "Octopussy", a talented but wayward British major pays a high price when his wartime past catches up with him, while in "The Property of a Lady", a Fabergé egg leads Bond to a KGB spy. In "The Living Daylights", Bond has a perilous rendezvous in sniper's alley between East and West Berlin, and "007 in New York" (read by Lucy Fleming) see him sent to America to warn an ex-MI6 operative about a dangerous liaison. All part of the job for 007.

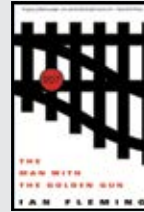

"A must for Bond buffs."

A Walk to Remember

by Nicholas Sparks • Read by Frank Muller

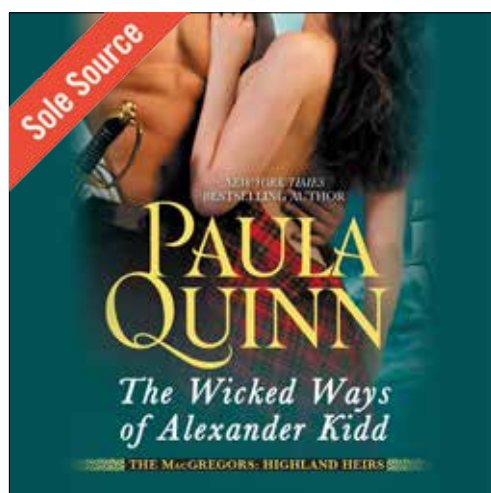

There was a time when the world was sweeter—when the women in Beaufort, North Carolina, wore dresses, and the men donned hats. Every April, when the wind smells of both the sea and lilacs, Landon Carter remembers 1958, his last year at Beaufort High. Landon had dated a girl or two, and even once sworn that he'd been in love. Certainly the last person he thought he'd fall for was Jamie, the shy, almost ethereal daughter of the town's Baptist minister—Jamie, who was destined to show him the depths of the human heart—and the joy and pain of living.

Village of Secrets

Defying the Nazis in Vichy France

by Caroline Moorehead • Reader to be announced

Le Chambon-sur-Lignon is a small village high in the mountains of the Ardèche, one of the most remote and inaccessible parts of Eastern France. During World War II, the inhabitants of this tiny mountain village saved thousands wanted by the Gestapo: resisters, freemasons, communists, OSS and SOE agents, and Jews. Many of those they protected were orphaned children whose parents had been deported to concentration camps. With unprecedented access to newly opened archives and interviews with some of the villagers who are still alive, Caroline Moorehead paints an inspiring portrait of courage and determination: of what was accomplished when a small group of people banded together to oppose their Nazi occupiers.

The Lesser Dead

by Christopher Buehlman
Read by Christopher Buehlman

New York City, 1978. Joey Peacock has spent the last forty years as an adolescent vampire, feeding by night and sleeping by day in the macabre labyrinth beneath the city. But when they appear, whatever they are, the undead of Manhattan are not as safe as they once were ... nor are the rest of us.

- Buehlman's Those across the River has been optioned for film; the director of Paranormal Activity 2 is attached to the project

- Will appeal to fans of Stephen King and Dean Koontz

- This novel marks Buehlman's return to straight horror fiction

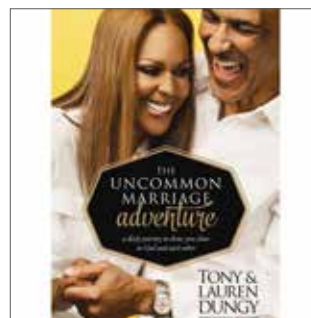

"An unsettling brew of growing menace spiked with flashes of genuine terror—do not miss this chilling debut. Christopher Buehlman is a writer to watch."

The Goddess of Small Victories

by Yannick Grannec
Read by Emily Woo Zeller and Dawn Harvey

Princeton University, 1980. Young librarian Anna Roth is assigned to retrieve the records of Kurt Gödel—the most fascinating and hermetic mathematician of the twentieth century. Gödel's widow, Adele, refuses to cooperate, but Anna soon finds that Adele has a story of her own to tell.

- The tortured genius is a subject of perennial fascination, as evidenced by the popularity of such movies as A Beautiful Mind, Amadeus, and Good Will Hunting
- Will appeal to readers of historical fiction based on real people, like Loving Frank and The Paris Wife, as well as readers of scientifically minded novelists such as Richard Powers and Rebecca Goldstein

The Burning Room

The Harry Bosch Series, Book 19

by Michael Connelly • Read by Titus Welliver

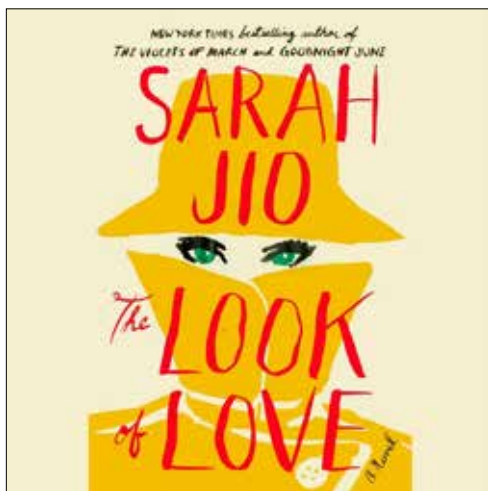

In the LAPD's Open-Unsolved Unit, not many murder victims die almost a decade after the crime. So when a man succumbs to complications from being shot by a stray bullet nine years earlier, Bosch catches a case in which the body is still fresh, but all other evidence is virtually nonexistent. Now Bosch and rookie Detective Lucia Soto are tasked with solving what turns out to be a highly charged, politically sensitive case. Beginning with the bullet that's been lodged for years in the victim's spine, they must pull new leads from years-old information, which soon reveal that this shooting may have been anything but random.

- Print run 550,000
- Will appeal to fans of Lee Child and David Baldacci
- Connelly's most recent Bosch novel, The Black Box, has sold more than 1.2 million copies across all formats

First SEALs

The Untold Story of the Forging of America’s Most Elite Unit

by Patrick K. O’Donnell • Reader to be announced

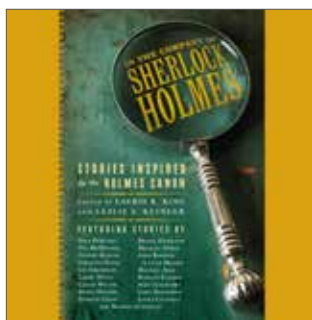

In the summer of 1942, an extraordinary group of men—among them a dentist, a medical student, a Hollywood star, an archaeologist, a British commando, and even former enemies of the Allies—formed an exceptional unit that would later become the US Navy’s Sea, Air, and Land (SEAL) Teams. Known as the Maritime Unit, it comprised America’s first swimmer-commandos, an elite breed of warrior-spies who were decades ahead of their time when they created the tactics, technology, and philosophy that live on in the Navy SEALs and shape the battlefield of today. During the war, the unit conducted some of the most daring operations behind enemy lines; after the war its astonishing record was classified, lost, and buried—until now.

- Will appeal to fans of SEAL Team Six, Honor and Betrayal, and The Warrior Elite

Blue Labyrinth

The Pendergast Novels, Book 14

by Douglas Preston; Lincoln Child • Read by Rene Auberjonois

A long-buried family secret resurfaces when one of Aloysius Pendergast's most implacable enemies shows up on his doorstep as a murdered corpse. The mystery has all the hallmarks of the perfect murder, save for an enigmatic clue: a piece of turquoise lodged in the stomach of the deceased. The gem leads Pendergast to an abandoned mine on the shore of California's Salton Sea, which in turn propels him on a journey into his family's sinister past. But Pendergast learns there is more at work than a ghastly episode of family history. He is soon being stalked by a subtle killer bent on vengeance. In short order, Pendergast is caught in a wickedly clever plot, which may well end with his death.

The Brewer of Preston

Read by Grover Gardner

THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR of the Inspector Montalbano series brings us back to Vigàta in the nineteenth century for a rip-roaring comic novel.

1870s, Sicily. Much to the displeasure of Vigàta's stubborn populace, the town has just been unified under the Kingdom of Italy. They're now in the hands of a new government they don't understand and definitely don't like. Eugenio Bortuzzi has been named prefect for Vigàta, a regional representative from the Italian government to oversee the town. But the rowdy and unruly Sicilians don't care much for this rather pompous mainlander nor the mediocre opera he's hell-bent on producing in their new municipal theater. The Brewer of Preston, it's called, and the Vigàtese are revving up to wreak havoc on the performance's opening night.

“Montalbano’s deadpan drollery and sharp observations refresh as much for their honesty as their wit.”

Hunting Season

A Novel

Read by Grover Gardner

In 1880s Vigàta, a stranger comes to town to open a pharmacy. Fofò turns out to be the son of a man made legendary for having a magic garden stocked with plants, fruits, and vegetables that could cure any ailment—a man who was found murdered years ago. Fofò escaped but has now reappeared looking to make his fortune and soon finds himself mixed up in the dealings of a philandering local marchese set on producing an heir. An absurd, quirky murder mystery that recalls the most hilarious and farcical scenes of Shakespeare and The Canterbury Tales, Hunting Season will introduce American readers to a refreshing new aspect of one of our best-loved writers.

Fear Not

By Max Lucado • Reader to be announced

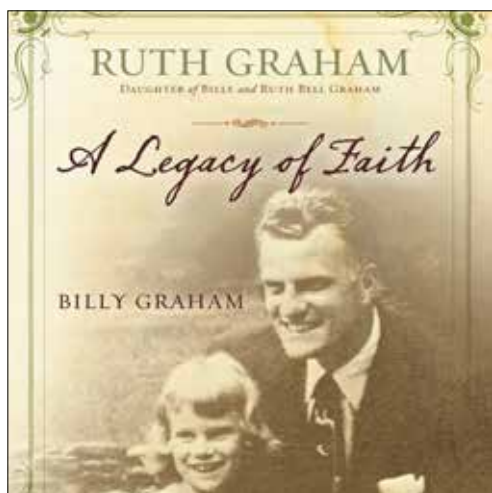

No one likes living in a world filled with fear and uncertainty. But in such times, God does some of his most important work. Our part is to trust that he will be true to his promises. Brimming with comfort, encouragement, and truth, Max Lucado's Fear Not addresses six major topics related to fear, from "God Is with You" to "God Is Never Surprised." This book also contains two hundred additional verses to help readers overcome chains of anxiety caused by fear and live boldly and joyfully the way God intended. While fear corrodes confidence, faith in God's love and presence always restores hope.

As fairy tale fever descends on New York City, Clare gives her coffee truck a “Jack and the Beanstalk” makeover for a Central Park festival. Her ex-husband contributes a bag of African beans with alleged magical properties, and his mother entertains customers with readings of the grinds. Clare remains skeptical—until she has a vision that helps her find the body of a young model in the woods. The police dismiss the “sleeping beauty” as the victim of an overdose. Then Clare uncovers evidence that points to a roster of suspects, from a wolf of Wall Street to a wicked witch of the West Side. Now Clare has a dangerous predator on her heels and an investigation that leads from a secret Prince Charming club right back to her own NYPD detective boyfriend.

“Cleo Coyle’s coffeehouse mystery series is among the best of the foodie/cozy mystery genre.”—Fresh Fiction, praise for the series

Second Star to the Right

by Mary Alice Monroe • Read by Mary Alice Monroe

As a single mother of two, Faye O'Neill has no time for fairy tales. Desperate to escape her past, she takes a job in London where she hopes she can start fresh. When she finds the beautiful two-story flat for rent in a stately old Victorian, she can't believe her luck. But not everything in the old home may be as peaceful as it seems. A strange light begins to appear in her children's rooms at night, and then there's the reclusive elderly tenant, Crazy Wendy, who spies on Faye's children and believes she is Peter Pan's Wendy. To make matters worse, Faye, who has sworn off men, discovers her neighbor Jack is a disturbingly handsome and charming professor. Before she knows it, Faye has embarked upon an adventure into a world where anything might be possible.

Men, Women & Children

by Chad Kultgen • Reader to be announced

The story of one town's complicated network of dating and sex, intimacy and disconnection, online and off—at work, at home, and in school—is now a major motion picture by Jason Reitman featuring a star-studded cast that includes Adam Sandler, Jennifer Garner, Emma Thompson, and an attention-getting cast of young newcomers. The novel explores the sexual explorations of a handful of junior high school students and their equally dysfunctional parents. From porn-surfing fathers to World of Warcraft-obsessed sons, from competitive cheerleaders to their dissatisfied, misguided mothers, Kultgen clicks open the emotionally treacherous culture we live in.

"Dark, hilarious, but most of all honest, Men, Women & Children is an unparalleled snapshot of sexual politics in the age of social networking, one that reminds me of my first encounters with films like The Graduate and American Beauty."

—Jason Reitman, director of Juno

- In fall 2014, four-time Academy Award nominee Jason Reitman—director of Juno and Thank You for Smoking—will bring Men, Women & Children to the screen, starring Adam Sandler, Jennifer Garner, and Emma Thompson

The Bulletproof Diet

by Dave Asprey • Reader to be announced

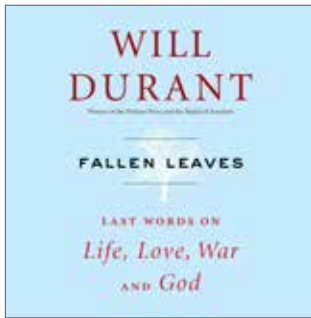

In his mid-twenties, Dave Asprey was a successful Silicon Valley multimillionaire. He also weighed 300 pounds, despite the fact that he was doing what doctors recommended: eating 1,800 calories a day and working out 90 minutes a day, six times a week. When his excess fat started causing brain fog and food cravings sapped his energy and willpower, Asprey turned to the same hacking techniques that made his fortune to "hack" his own biology, investing more than $300,000 and fifteen years to uncover what was hindering his energy, performance, appearance, and happiness. The result? The Bulletproof Diet, an anti-inflammatory program for hunger-free, rapid weight loss, and peak performance.

Kerman Derman and the Relic of Perilous Falls

The Kerman Derman Chronicles, Book 1

by Raymond Arroyo • Read by Raymond Arroyo, Alexander Arroyo, Mariella Arroyo, and Lorenzo Arroyo

For nearly a century, a sacred relic has protected the town of Perilous Falls from the raging waters surrounding it. But when Kerman Derman—a mischievous, pith-helmet-wearing twelve-year-old—borrows the relic for his own purposes, he rouses an evil foe. Unimaginable dangers ambush his family and friends. As boats sink and deadly creatures crawl up from the rising waters, Kerman must set things right and repel a fearsome enemy before it is too late. With the help of his sweet, if lethal, Aunt Lucille, the curator of a museum of powerful artifacts, Kerman uncovers a supernatural gift, his destiny, and a family secret that will change his life forever.

“Exactly the kind of tale I sought as a young reader: suspense, adventure, humor, a compelling story, and characters that fired my imagination. Great fun and great frights.”

Bad Magic

The Bad Magic Series, Book 1

by Pseudonymous Bosch
Read by Joshua Swanson

Magic is BAD. At least, that’s what Clay, who has seen one magic show too many, thinks. But when the words from his journal appear mysteriously on his school wall, he never imagines that magic might be to blame. And when the same graffiti lands him at Earth Ranch, a camp for “troubled” kids, magic is the last thing he expects to find there.

• Print run 100,000

• A New York Times bestselling author

• Pseudonymous Bosch’s Secret series sold nearly two million copies across all formats

“Equal parts snarky and delightful.”

D-Day: The Road to Normandy

Voices from the BBC Archives
Featuring Jonathan Keeble
Radio Program

In 1940, after the evacuation of the British army from Dunkirk, Winston Churchill vowed that Allied Forces would return to "cleanse Europe of the Nazi Pestilence." The logistics of Operation Overlord were daunting, but an inspired campaign of deception successfully diverted Hitler's attention away from the Normandy beaches until it was too late. Rommel had privately declared the battle must be won in the first twenty-four hours or it would be the beginning of the end for Germany. He was right. The reminiscences of civilians, military strategists, German officers, and Allied servicemen powerfully evoke the events of seventy years ago. The courage of the troops is evident, yet their individual stories reveal their deepest fears.

- Will appeal to military history buffs and those interested in the personal aspect of war
- World War II stories are always in demand

Antony and Cleopatra

By William Shakespeare
Starring Kenneth Branagh, Alex Kingston, and a full cast
Audio Theater

Antony and Cleopatra is Shakespeare's late and epic tragedy of mature love and the catastrophic fall from grace and power that it brings about. Irresistibly drawn together, the couple is surrounded by friends, enemies, admirers, and critics, none of who remain unscathed by the folly and heartbreak of this magnificent pair.

As empires clash around them, their destiny seems inevitable: to love each other 'til death—and even beyond. Produced by BBC Cymru Wales for BBC Radio 3, this radio production also features Geoffrey Streatfeild, Nigel Anthony, Don Gilet, and Peter Polycarpou among its cast.

- This play has been adapted for stage, television, and film numerous times and continues to capture the attention of audiences everywhere
- Kenneth Branagh is well known for his Shakespearean work in film and on stage
- Blackstone offers many BBC productions of Shakespeare's plays, including Hamlet and Macbeth

AUTHOR COLLECTIONS ELLERY QUEEN

ELLERY QUEEN is the pseudonym two cousins from Brooklyn used to write detective fiction. In their successful series, Ellery Queen served as both the authors' name and that of the detective-hero. The cousins also cofounded Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine, one of the most influential English crime-fiction magazines of the twentieth century. They were given the Grand Master Award by the Mystery Writers of America in 1961.

The Tragedy of X

The Drury Lane Mysteries, Book 1
Read by Mark Peckham

In New York City in the early 1930s, a man is poisoned on a crowded streetcar during rush hour. Everyone sees Longstreet die—but no one sees the killer. Inspector Thumm's few clues all lead up a blind alley. He finally seeks the aid of Drury Lane—retired Shakespearean actor, master of disguise, and amateur sleuth. Seated amid the splendor of the vast medieval halls of his castle on the Hudson, Drury Lane hears the story from the inspector. He knows who the murderer is right away, but he refuses to reveal his identity until he has sufficient evidence for the police to arrest him.

The Hundred-Foot Journey

A Novel

by Richard C. Morais
Read by Neil Shah

Born above his grandfather's restaurant in Mumbai, Hassan Haji first experienced life through encounters with food. When tragedy pushes the family out of India, they console themselves by eating their way around the world, eventually settling in a small French village. There they open an inexpensive Indian café opposite an esteemed French restaurant, setting off a culinary war.

The Hundred-Foot Journey in theaters 8/8/2014. Starring Helen Mirren, Rohan Chand, and Charlotte Le Bon.

"The novel's charm lies in its improbability: it's Slumdog Millionaire meets Ratatouille."

The Best of Me is the heartrending story of two former small-town high school sweethearts from opposite sides of the tracks. Now middle-aged, they've taken wildly divergent paths, but neither has lived the life they imagined—and neither can forget the passionate first love that forever altered their world. When they are both called back to their hometown for the funeral of the mentor who once gave them shelter, each will be forced to confront the choices they have made—and ask whether love can truly rewrite the past.

The Imitation Game in theaters 11/21/2014. Starring Benedict Cumberbatch, Keira Knightly, and Mark Strong.

Between 1939 and 1943, British and American navies fought a losing battle against German submarine wolf packs. The Allies might never have turned the tide of that historic battle without an intelligence coup. The race to break the German U-boat codes is one of the last great untold stories of World War II. Kahn, the world's leading historian of cryptology, brings to life this tense, behind-the-scenes drama for the first time. This is the definitive account of how British and American code breakers fought a war of wits against Nazi naval communications and helped lead the Allies to victory in the crucial Battle of the Atlantic.

"Mayes captures the right mood for this report on the breaking of the German code during WWII."

Neil deGrasse Tyson hosts Cosmos: A Spacetime Odyssey. Thirteen-episode set now on DVD.

Our true origins are not just human, or even terrestrial, but in fact cosmic. Drawing on scientific breakthroughs and the current cross-pollination among geology, biology, astrophysics, and cosmology, Origins explains the soul-stirring leaps in our understanding of the cosmos. From the first image of a galaxy birth to Spirit rover's exploration of Mars, to the discovery of water on one of Jupiter's moons, coauthors Neil deGrasse Tyson and Donald Goldsmith conduct a galvanizing tour of the cosmos with clarity and exuberance.

"An accessible and extremely well-written exploration of the deep waters of cosmology, astrophysics, and exobiology."

The Witches of East End: Season 2 now airing on Lifetime. Starring Julia Ormond, Jenna Dewan-Tatum, Rachel Boston, and Mädchen Amick.

The three Beauchamp women—Joanna and her daughters, Freya and Ingrid—live ordinary lives in mist-shrouded North Hampton, out on the tip of Long Island. All three are harboring a centuries-old secret—they are powerful witches forbidden to practice magic. But right before Freya's planned wedding to wealthy Bran Gardiner, a mysterious and attractive man arrives in town and makes Freya question everything. When a young woman turns up dead, it soon becomes clear to all three that it's time to dust off their wands and fight the dark forces working against them. This is a page-turning, deliciously fun read fraught with love affairs, witchcraft, and mythology.

Exodus: Gods and Kings in theaters 12/12/2014. Starring Christian Bale, Aaron Paul, and Joel Edgerton.

The King James Version of the Holy Bible is the most influential and widely published book ever written. It has been translated into over two thousand languages and is still the world's best-selling book every year. After its original publication in 1611, the King James Bible quickly became the standard for English-speaking Protestants. Its flowing language and prose rhythm has had a profound influence on the literature of the past four hundred years.

English speakers around the world are praising this new recording of the King James Bible by British narrator Christopher Glyn, who draws on thirty-five years of experience as a Christian narrator and broadcaster to bring you this expressive reading of the King James Bible that captures the beauty and power of God's Word in easy-to-understand language.
