SUBJECT 375

THE PROJECT TRILOGY, BOOK 1

BY NIKKI OWEN

Plastic surgeon Dr. Maria Martinez has Asperger's. Convicted of killing a priest, she is alone in prison and has no memory of the murder. DNA evidence places Maria at the scene of the crime, yet she claims she's innocent. Then she starts to remember: a strange room, strange people, being watched. As Maria gets closer to the truth, she is drawn into a web of international intrigue and must fight not only to clear her name but to remain alive. With a protagonist as original as The Bridge's Saga Norén, part one in the Project trilogy is as addictive as the Bourne novels.

SIEGE AT JADOTVILLE

THE IRISH ARMY'S FORGOTTEN BATTLE

BY DECLAN POWER

The men of A Company, Thirty-Fifth Irish Infantry Battalion, arrived in the Congo as a United Nations contingent to help keep the peace. For many it would be their first trip outside their native shores. Led by Commandant Pat Quinlan, A Company found themselves tasked with protecting the European population at Jadotville, a small mining town in the southern Congolese province of Katanga. It fell to A Company to protect those who would later turn against them, and on September 13th, 1961, the bright morning air of Jadotville was shattered by the sound of automatic gunfire. Though cut off and surrounded, the men of Jadotville held their ground and fought.

"In telling the full story for the first time, former soldier Declan Power does the brave men of A Company a great service."
